

Résumé

Nigel Boyle

Professor of Political Studies, Pitzer College
1050 N. Mills Avenue, Claremont, CA 91711.

nboyle@pitzer.edu

Education

Ph.D. (Political Science) Duke University (1993).

Employment History

2007-present Peter and Gloria Gold Chair in Political Studies

2004-present Professor, Political Studies, Pitzer College

1998-2004 Associate Professor, Political Studies, Pitzer College

1992-1998 Assistant Professor, Political Studies, Pitzer College

1990-1992 Teaching Fellow and Junior Dean, University College, Oxford

1989-1990 R. Taylor Cole Instructor, Duke University

1988-1989 College Lecturer, University College, Oxford

Honors/Fellowships

2008-9 Senior Fulbright Fellow. Institut für Politikwissenschaft, Universität Koblenz-Landau, Germany.

2007-12 Peter and Gloria Gold Chair, Pitzer College.

2005-present Research Associate, The Policy Institute, Trinity College, Dublin.

2000-2007 CISEP Grants: multiple grants totaling $2 million (including European Commission Grants).

2003-2004 Visiting Research Fellow, The Policy Institute, Trinity College Dublin.

2002 Avery Foundation Fellow (summer in China “Watching the Chinese watch the World Cup”).

1999 and 2000 Elected Student Marshall by Graduating Seniors. Faculty Marshall for 2005.

Publications

Books

FÁS and Active Labour Market Policy 1985-2004 (The Policy Institute, Dublin, 2005).

Crafting Change: Labor Market Policy under Mrs Thatcher (University Press of the South, New Orleans, 2006).

Other Recent Publications

“What soccer teaches us about Europe, and what European Studies teaches us about soccer”

Connections: European Studies Annual Review Volume 9, 2011 (Journal of the Rocky Mountain European Scholars Consortium).

“The Malleable Politics of Welfare-to-Work Reform: Germany’s ‘Hartz’ Activation Compared with the Dutch, British and Irish cases” (co-authored with Wolf Schünemann). American Consortium on European Studies Cases Series 2009, #1. http://transatlantic.sais-jhu.edu/bin/i/f/2009.1_ACES_Cases_BoyleSchunemann.pdf

“Neo-liberalism and Labor Market Policy in Britain and Ireland: Ideational Coalitions and Divergent Policy Trajectories” in A. Denzau, T. Willett and R. Roy (eds.) Neo-Liberalism: Ideas, Interests and Global Economic Change (New York, Routledge 2006).

“How We Study Work-Family and Work-Life Interactions” (Diane Halpern, Robert Drago and Nigel Boyle) Chapter 2 in D. Halpern and S. Murphy (eds.) From Work-Life Balance to Work-Family Interaction. (Erlbaum, New Jersey 2005).

“Imitation, Flattery and the Lisbon Agenda: the Irish model and labor market and social policy” in Yiannis Stivachtis (ed.) Current Issues in European Integration (ATINER, Athens 2004).

“Governance in a Globalized Political Economy: Irish Labor Market Policy 1987-99” in T. Ilgen Reconfigured Sovereignty: Multi-Layered Governance in the Global Age (Ashgate, 2003).

“National Politics and Globalization: Varieties of Neo-liberal Youth Labour Market Policy Under Thatcher and Blair” (with Ravi Roy) in M. Griffin Cohen and S. McBride (eds.) Global Turbulence: Social Activists’ and State Responses to Globalization (Ashgate, 2003).

Manuscripts Submitted for Publication

„Die vielen Gesichter aktivierender Arbeitsmarktpolitik – Deutschlands Hartz-Reformen im Vergleich mit aktivierender Arbeitsmarktpolitik in den Niederlanden, Großbritannien und Irland“ (co-authored with Wolf Schünemann, I am 2nd author). Submitted to Sozialer Fortschritt (2011 revise and resubmit).

Papers and Public Presentations

Recent conference papers

“The Malleable Politics of Welfare-to-Work Reform: Germany’s ‘Hartz’ Activation Compared with the Dutch, British and Irish cases” presented at the Faculty Workshop on European Integration European Union Center of California, Scripps College, Dec. 5th, 2009.

“The Malleable Politics of Activation Reform: the German ‘Hartz’ Reforms in Comparative Perspective” (with Wolf Schünemann) delivered at the European Union Studies Association Eleventh Biennial International Conference, Los Angeles, April 25, 2009.

“The Irish State and Immigration from EU accession countries 2004-8” delivered at ECPR Fourth Pan-European Conference on EU Politics, 27th of September 2008 at University of Latvia, Riga.

“The Institutional Capacity of the Irish State: development planning, infrastructural planning and training policy 1987-2007” delivered at Political Studies Association of Ireland conference, Dublin, October 19, 2007.

“The Patchy Europeanisation of Irish Governance” delivered at ECPR Third Pan-European Conference, Istanbul, September 23, 2006.

“Neo-liberalism and Labor Market Policy in Britain and Ireland” delivered at International Studies Association Conference, San Diego, March 24, 2006.

“Governance and the Celtic Tiger: the Partially Enhanced Institutional Capacity of the Irish State”. Paper (co-written with Gerry Boucher) delivered at the Political Studies Association of Ireland conference, Belfast October 22, 2005.

Research-Related Invited Talks/Public Lectures

„Through a Soccer Prism: what World Cup and Champions League soccer teaches us about contemporary Europe“ Keynote Speech, Rocky Mountain European Scholars Consortium, October 23, 2010, Salt Lake City, Utah.

“FÁS and Active Labour Market Policy 1985-2004”. Presentation to launch book published by The Policy Institute. Trinity College, Dublin, March 16, 2005.

“The Irish Economic Miracle: A Crock of What?” Presented to the International Relations Colloquium, Oldenbourg Center, Pomona College, February 8, 2005.

“The Celtic Tiger and the Swiss Army Knife: An Foras Áiseanna Saothair and the Irish Model”. Presented at Department of Political Science, University of California, Irvine, December 8, 2004.

“The Celtic Tiger and the Swiss Army Knife: An Foras Áiseanna Saothair and the Irish Model” Presented to the Marching and Chowder Society, Pitzer College, October 29, 2004.

“The Celtic Tiger and the Swiss Army Knife.” European Union Center of California Opening Public Lecture in “Small States – Global Influence” Series . Malott Commons, Scripps College, September 30, 2004.

“Boston versus Berlin? The European and neo-liberal stripes of the Celtic Tiger Economy”. Presented at The Irish Seminar 6th Annual Summer Session June 29, 2004, Keough-Notre Dame Centre, Newman House, Dublin.

“Problem-Induced Policy Development: FÁS and Active Labour Market Policy 1987-2004”. Presented as a Policy Institute Seminar, Trinity College Dublin, May 18, 2004.

http://www.policyinstitute.tcd.ie/working_papers/Boyle_Presentation_180504.ppt

“The Three Worlds of Childcare”. Presented at a Leadership in Work/Family Balance conference (Kravis-deRoulet Leadership Conference CMC) on February 22 2003.

“Mrs. Thatcher and British Politics”. Presented at Department of Political Science, University of California, Riverside. November 28, 2002.

“National, Sub-National and Supra-National Governance in the Celtic Tiger: FÁS 1987-99.” Keynote address at the American Conference for Irish Studies Conference Santa Clara University October 2002.

“National, Sub-National and Supra-National Governance in a Globalized Political Economy.” Presented at the “Reconfigured Sovereignty Workshop” Pitzer College May 24-25 2002.

“The Euro.” Presented to Conference for Economics Teachers, The Federal Reserve Bank, Los Angeles. February 20, 2002.

Other Recent Invited/Public Lectures

„Obama: the Inauguration“, Institut für Politikwissenschaft, Universität Koblenz-Landau January 20th, 2009.

„Die Wahlparty: The Candidates“, Institut für Politikwissenschaft, Universität Koblenz-Landau November 4, 2008.

“Immigration and Integration in Contemporary California” Hessen Teacher Institute: Several Americas: „E Pluribus Unum“ or „E Pluribus Plura“, Hessen, Germany, November 28, 2008.

“The 2008 US Presidential Election” Marienschule, Saarbrücken, Germany, November 21, 2008.

“Healthcare Politics: a comparative perspective on single-payer systems”. Presentation to La Canada Flintridge Democratic Club”, La Canada, November 18, 2007.

“Healthcare Politics: a comparative perspective on single-payer systems”. Presentation to the League of Women Voters, Claremont September 25, 2005.

“Healthcare Politics: a comparative perspective”. Presentation to the Jerry Voorhis Claremont Democratic Club June 27, 2005.

“Is Atlanticism Dead? EU-US relations in the second Bush Term” Presentation to be made to begin the Institute “Is Atlanticism Dead?” Institute, March 4, 2005.

“EU and the US: Rivals or Partners?” 2-part Presentation to Inland Empire Consortium for International Studies. April 3 and 17, 2003.

“Avery Presentation: China and the World Cup”, Broad Performance Space Pitzer, December 10, 2002

“Teaching the EU through Technology” Presented at Center for Active Learning in International Studies conference, USC November 2002

“China and the World Cup” at Malott Commons Noon Academy, Scripps College November 12, 2002.

“The Euro and the Wizard of Oz” Presented at Federal Reserve Bank, Los Angeles August 22 2002.

“Xenophobic Nationalism and the Owl of Minerva” Presented at Claremont International Studies Education Project Institute July 26, 2002.

“Jihad Versus McWorld: Globalization and its Discontents.” Presented at Claremont International Studies Education Project Institute July 22, 2002

“The Changing Face of Europe:” Presented at Los Angeles Center for International Studies, Loyola Marymount University October 26, 2002.

“The Changing Face of Europe: Multiculturalism and Beyond” Presented at the Annual Conference of the California Council for the Social Studies, Riverside, March 1, 2002.

“Multiculturalism in Europe” Presented at University of Washington Public Affairs Forum July 24, 2001. Broadcast on statewide Washington Public Affairs TV (TVW Forum July 26, 2001).

Administrative Posts

2004- Academic Advisor to CISEP (Claremont International Studies Education Project, a professional development program for social studies teachers funded by the State of California and other outside grants).

1998-2004 Associate Director of the EU Center of California, including one semester as Acting Director.

Institutional Service

1996-2007 Fulbright, Rhodes, Marshall, CORO, Truman advisor. Since 2007 mainly Fulbright.

2005-2006 Chair of Faculty Executive Committee (Elected member and served on Diversity Committee 2004-2005), elected member of APT committee for 2010-12.

Conferences/Institutes Organized

As CISEP Academic Director I have organized and led 11 “Teacher Institutes”: professional development conferences/series each amounting to 40-80 contact hours for groups of 10-40 teachers.

Spring 2011 “Global Soccer and the 2011 Women’s World Cup in Germany”

Spring 2005 “Is Atlanticism Dead”

Spring 2003 “Complex Instruction/Contemporary World History”

Spring 2003 “World Religions in History and the Contemporary World”

Fall 2002-Spring 2003 “Teach Asia 2”

Summer 2002 “Jihad versus McWorld”

Spring 2002 “Teach Asia 1”

Fall 2001 “Using Technology to Teach the European Union”

Summer 2001 “World History: Teaching a Global Perspective”

Spring 2001 “The Changing Face of Europe: Multiculturalism in the EU”

Spring 2001 “Regions in Transition: Africa, Europe and Latin America”

Co-organizer (with David Finegold) of April 2002 conference “Engineering Life: Bioscience and Ethics in a Global Context” sponsored by the EU Center and KGI.

Co-organizer (with David Lloyd) of April 2000 conference “In Migration: immigration, racism and policy in Europe and California” sponsored by the EU Center and the Humanities Institute, Scripps College

Courses Taught

Landau

Proseminar: Political Systems and Types of Democracies

Seminar: Current Challenges in Globalization: the politics of labor market reform

Seminar: The Role of Culture in International Politics Migration, Citizenship and National Identity in Europe

Vorlesung: Comparative Politics

Vorlesung: International Relations

Proseminar: Politics and Government in Ireland

Seminar: History and Political Economy of World Football

Pitzer

POST 10 Introduction to Political Studies (recently as 10b, comparative/international emphasis)

POST 30 Comparative Politics (also taught in tandem with Prof. Mgadla, U. Botswana)

POST 110 European Politics

POST 112 Labor and Politics (included internships with local unions or labor advocacy groups)

POST 113 Immigrants, Citizenship and Nationalism in Europe (with French, German and Italian language sections attached)

POST 114 European Union Scholars Seminar: Multicultural Europe

POST 115 Rival Models of Capitalism in Europe

POST 117 Britain and Ireland

POST 118 Teaching and Politics: Practicum (workshop – students intern in local high schools)

POST 165 Politics of Germany

POST 183 Welfare State in Comparative Perspective;

POST 187 History and Politics of World Soccer (quadrennially)
POST 188/IIS 100 International Studies Colloquium (workshop, students work on 6 projects, including a Fulbright application)
POST 194 International Studies Workshop (half course “umbrella” for all Fulbright applicants)
POST 196 Senior Seminar (Biennially, topics vary, Comparative Public Policy most recently)
Politics 195 EU Seminar (several times, different topics, including Accession and Constitution)

References

David Finegold, Dean, School of Management and Labor Relations, Rutgers University, NJ 08854-8054. dfinegold@smlr.rutgers.edu
David Andrews, Jean Monnet Chair in International Relations, Scripps College, Claremont, CA 91711. dandrews@scrippscollege.edu
Iain McLean, Professor of Politics & Fellow, Nuffield College, Oxford. iain.mclean@nuffield.ox.ac.uk
Peter Lange, Provost, Duke University, Durham, NC 27706. plange@acpub.duke.edu
Frances Ruane, Professor of Economics, Trinity College, Dublin and Director of the Economic and Social Research Institute, Dublin. director@esri.ie
Siegmar Schmidt, Director, Institut für Politikwissenschaft, Universität Koblenz-Landau schmidts@uni-landau.de