

Series

Skills-Based WORKSHOP

Come learn the necessary skills for your community-based experience this semester! This series of skills-based trainings will provide the necessary tools for critical engagement with community-based partner organizations.

CCCSI Community Engagement: Spring '09 Calendar of Events

Feb. 6 and 9:

Orientation and Ethics Training for Community-Based Internships

(Feb. 6: 1-3 p.m. Broad Hall Rm 214;
Feb. 9: 3-5 p.m. Broad Hall Rm 210)

Feb. 17:

Teaching Skills and Learning Theories

(hosted by CGU School of Education)
(3-5 p.m. Gold Center Multipurpose Room)

March 6: Teaching ESL

(hosted by Professor Jenifer Onstott)
(1-3 p.m. Broad Performance Space,
Broad Center)

March 24 or 27:

Intro to Community Organizing and

Policy-based Activism (hosted by ICUC youth community organizers)
(time and location TBA)

April 3-5: Activism through Arts:

Theater for Social Change

(time and location TBA)

April 28: Wellness and Critical

Consciousness in Community

Engagement (time and location TBA)

May 1: Public Speaking and

Presentation Skills

(time and location TBA)

RSVP: deborahl@pitzer.edu and FMI e-mail or call 909.607.8183

Changemakers is a CCCSI program designed to promote Pitzer College's social responsibility ethos through scholarship, action and advocacy.