

Celebrating California American Indians

Changing Realities, Changing Images

Speaker Series and Film Festival

* Nightly frybread sales and silent auction to benefit the Costanoan Rumsen Carmel (Ohlone) Tribe

April 1-3, 2009, McConnell Center, Founders Room

Wednesday, April 1, 5:30 p.m. Thursday, April 2, 5:30 p.m. Friday, April 3, 5:30 p.m.

Survival and Resilience!
California Indians

5:30 Traditional California Songs-
(Ohlone) Tribe

Opening Ceremony:
Robertjohn Knapp

Speaker: Tony Cerna, Chair of
Carmel Rumsen Costanoan
(Ohlone) Tribe

Ishi: Last of the Yahi (58 mins)
Gold, Greed and Genocide (28 mins)
Pogo Love (15 minutes)

Native Filmmaking

Ohlone Bear Clan Drummers

Speaker: James Lujan, Southern California Indian Center

Short films:

Powwow Dreams
Edgar's Journey
He Can't Be Caught,
Two Spirits One Journey
Liminality, Ancestor Eyes
The Migration

Playing Indian

Ohlone Bear Clan Drummers

Speakers:
Charelene Teters
Robertjohn Knapp

In Whose Honor? (58min)
White Shamans,
Plastic Medicine Men (30min)

Closing Ceremony:
Robertjohn Knapp

FMI: scott_scoggins@pitzer.edu,
call 909.399.3481 or visit www.pitzer.edu

Sponsored by the Agnes Moreland
Jackson Fund, CCCSI and Changemakers

PITZER
COLLEGE

