

The Community Engagement Center cordially invites you and your family to celebrate community and friendship at the

Pitzer College Third Annual Posada

Come enjoy Aztec dancers "Copali/Copili" (Brittany Stenmo's '10 family), mariachi, singing and dancing, traditional food and beverages, face painting and breaking of piñatas.

Friday, December 9, 2011
7-10 p.m.

Multi-Purpose Room, Gold Student Center
Pitzer College

Dinner and Entertainment Free and Open to the Public

Our Third Annual Posada will give us an opportunity to celebrate together and recognize the value of cultural traditions, as well as the importance of creating and maintaining strong ties with our community members, parents, alumni and local partners.

FMI contact: Martha Bárcenas-Mooradian, PhD,
Associate Director, Community Engagement Center
Pitzer College, 909.607.3301, www.pitzer.edu/offices/cec

Special Thanks to the following Pitzer College groups/committees for their financial contributions and/or their participation in coordinating this event:

Campus Life Committee-Strategic Initiative Fund/Office of Student Affairs/Parent Relations/Dining Hall-Bon Appétit/Cafeteria workers/Custodial staff/Staff Council Representatives/ Pitzer Latino Parents/Latina/o Student Union/ Uncommon Good/Tutors for a Cause/Nahuatl Language and Culture Club/ Intercollegiate Department of Chicano Latino Studies/Chicano Latino Transnational Studies, Jumpstart, The Community Engagement Center and our many friends for their financial contributions and/or their participation in coordinating this event.

A MEMBER OF THE CLAREMONT COLLEGES

Community Engagement Center
1050 North Mills Avenue
Claremont, CA 91711-6101

