Cover Letter Guidelines

A cover letter is a formal business letter that accompanies a resume and serves as an introduction of you to potential employers. It will inform the employer of your skills, abilities, and experiences that relate to the job. Since your letter needs to be tailored for each employer, you should do your homework to discover what is unique and special about the organization. Remember that your letter communicates your “voice.” It needs to be well-written and express your enthusiasm for the organization and the job. When emailing a cover letter, it should be included as an attachment.

Appearance

• It should be one page, written in a professional, business letter format.
• Use a professional looking font such as Calibri, Cambria, Arial, or Garamond. The generally accepted font size is 12. It should match the font and type size used on your resume.
• Please save your cover letter in a PDF format for ease of reading.
• Everything a potential employer receives from you—resume, cover letter, networking and thank you letters and emails need to project professionalism.

Content

• Your cover letter needs to be tailored to each employer. Do your homework and focus on how your skills meet their particular needs.
• Whenever possible, address your cover letter to the person who is responsible for the hiring process or for making the hiring decision. Try to avoid addressing letters “To Whom it May Concern,” “Dear Sir or Madam,” or “Dear Personnel Director.” If you have to address the cover letter to someone, address it to “Dear Recruiting Manager.”
• Your letter needs to be 100% free of spelling, grammatical, and typing errors. When at all possible have someone else proofread your cover letter.

Director of Marketing
Coca Cola
1000 Drink Lane
Atlanta, GA 30301

Salutation
Dear Ms. Sagehen:

Introduction
I am applying for the Social Media Internship position at Coca Cola in Atlanta. I became aware of this position through my college’s online job & internship database Handshake. I am expressing interest in this position because I am extremely interested in seeing how a successful organization like yours excels in an already oversaturated social media landscape. As a worldwide leader in the carbonated beverage industry, I would love to work for a company that strives to become a leader in its industry every day.

(Note: an effective writer could insert a short “hook” in the first paragraph to grab the reader’s attention)

Body
I am currently a junior at Pitzer College majoring in Organizational Studies with a GPA of 3.5. I believe that my current courses such as (insert several relevant courses) would make me the perfect candidate for this position. I am diligent, trustworthy, motivated, and I never stray from a challenge (insert other skills). For example (use 1 example from your experience).

(Note: Continue to reference 1-2 additional examples of your experience tying them back to the job description)

Conclusion
I would be eager and honored to be part of the Coca Cola Social Media team. Thank you for taking the time to read my resume. Attached is my resume and an unofficial copy of my transcript for your review. I will be following up with you in a couple of weeks to determine where you are in the application process.

Sincerely,
Caroline Smith
Internship Inquiry Email

An Internship Inquiry Email is sent to any organization or person you wish to gain employment with. Some employers do not post internships online and the only way to find out about internships is by directly contacting them.
