

CEC | COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT CENTER

Welcome Back!

The Community Engagement Center would like to welcome back all students, staff and faculty from a well-deserved break! As we kick off this semester, we would like to extend our support to all those engaging in community engagement activities this semester!

Whether you are enrolled in a Social Responsibility Praxis course or not, the CEC is happy to help you navigate through the process!

We start off this semester with our Virtual Welcome Back Open House this Wednesday, January 27th, 2021 at 9am PST.

Stop by for any questions you may have related to clearance, partner placement, awards, reimbursements and more! And be on the lookout throughout this semester for more events and details to come!!

IMPORTANT DEADLINES

Ethics and Orientation Training and Required Materials

Due by February 8th, 2021

All students participating in a Social Responsibility course or other community engagement activities must complete the CEC Ethics and Orientation Training.

This semester we provide this training to be done asynchronously. All materials are available on our Orientation, Trainings and Workshops page. You will be required to watch our training video and complete the Ethics and Orientation Test and Intake form.

ETHICS AND ORIENTATION
TRAINING

This training is required once a year. If you completed this training in the Fall, you will only need to complete a new Intake form. For questions related to this training please contact Jonathan Chan.

Clearance for Work with Community Partners

Begin Process no later than January 29th, 2021. The longer you wait the less time you will have to work with your community partner.

Clearance is required for some of our community partners. If your partner requires clearance, please refer to the information below on how to handle clearance in and out of state. For more additional information or questions about the clearance process, visit

Digital Drop-ins with the CEC
