Weekly Spotlight

California Senate Bill No. 321 has passed! The bill will convene an advisory committee to protect the health and safety of household domestic service employees, and develop industry-specific occupational health and safety guidance.

Two of the Community Engagement Center’s partners, CLEAR and the Pomona Economic Opportunity Center were instrumental in organizing support for this bill. We’d like to thank the wonderful organizers who’ve done so much good work to make this happen. To learn more, check out the PEOC on Facebook @1PEOC, Instagram @peoc_pomona, and Twitter @peoc_pomona.

Volunteers Needed

Interested in graphic design or social media? The CEC’s community partners are looking for regular student volunteers to help out with content creation for their social media presences.

October 13 @ 6:15 pm - 7:30 pm: College for All Organizing: Connecting the Local to Statewide Coalition-Building for Educational Change

Virtual Event - Register here
The Latino and Latina Roundtable College for All Coalition Committee works to generate educational policies that foster leadership development, civic engagement, and a democratic culture for community empowerment and improvement. As part of its goals, the committee is building a core group of LRT parents, students, and members as part of the College for All Coalition to support key educational bills, develop college readiness programs in schools, create a pipeline between area colleges and schools, and advance access and retention in higher education. This event is co-sponsored by The People’s Pitzer and the Latino Roundtable of the San Gabriel and Pomona Valley.

Plenary Speakers: Jose Calderon, Pitzer Emeritus Professor; Melanie Andreo, Pitzer Senior Latin@ Studies & Sociology; Cesar Casarrubias, PUSD Director of Pupil Resources; Maria Garcia, PUSD Senior Technical Assistant for and Community Services & Parent Involvement; Fabian Pavon, Pomona Education Coalition; and Oscar Segovia, Chaffey High School Social Science Teacher.
