WEEKLY COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT TIP

Timesheets

If you are completing an internship this semester that requires you to keep track of your hours, such as the CASA program, consider using our weekly internship timesheet. This is a great way to make sure you are staying on track with your internship and log your hours in one place. It can be tricky backlogging hours from memory, so we suggest logging hours the day that you complete them!

CEC STAFF SPOTLIGHT

This week the CEC would like to introduce you to our Direct Actions Intern, Shanie Kalikow!

What do you love about your job or working at Pitzer?

I love the opportunity to connect students who deeply care about making change with organizations making/practices that help make that change.

How do you practice self-care?

I love reading speculative fictions that help me better conceptualize alternatives to the way things are; doing/sharing art with loved ones; attempting to bake delicious bread; and experiencing the awe-inspiring beauty of the world around.

What is your favorite Pitzer memory?

I feel like so much of what I love about being at Pitzer are really the moments in the everyday: connecting with students, staff, and faculty who care so deeply about things and act in the ways that care compels them to.

What’s one song you can help but dance to?

Burning Down the House by the Talking Heads (lol).
