WEEKLY COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT TIP

Community Service v. Community Engagement

Why don't we hear the term community service as often as we used to? While its heart is in the right place, the word "service" is parallel to charity in that it propels a narrative of bolstering a singular savior as opposed to encouraging a collective effort and reciprocal partnership led by the communities that the work is being done in. Community engagement is molded around the notion that everyone has something we can contribute and teach to another.

PARTNER FEATURE

Children Youth and Family Collaborative

CYFC's mission is to ensure that youth in foster care graduate high school or secondary institutions and successfully transition rewarding careers, gainful employment and continue on to have successful lives. They accomplish this via partnering with school districts and youth-centered groups.
