WEEKLY COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT TIP

PREPARING FOR BREAK!

As we approach the coming fall and thanksgiving break, we want to remind students that communicating with your community partner during these breaks are imperative! Keeping your partner up to date on days you will be unavailable and being mindful of what we are promising to accomplish for partners is an important part of the work!

PARTNER FEATURE

Since 1997, ConductAbility has been providing Conductive Education programs for people from 6 months to young adults. Our Danbury program is integrated into a public school classroom and specializes in the combination of Conductive Education and assistive technology. We also have private programs including our After-School program and our Summer Program. ConductAbility, Inc. is a nonprofit corporation that exists to develop the abilities of people with neuromotor impairments by providing Conductive Education programs in both public special education and private settings, working toward the increased independence and self-esteem of the whole person, physically, cognitively, and socially.

Program Volunteers | 1-2 positions | In-person | Desire students who have interest in working with young people with neuro-motor impairments

For more information on how to get involved with ConductAbility, please contact Kelly Heimdahl, kelly.heimdahl@cgu.edu.

If you would like to be featured in our weekly newsletter, please fill out our Partner Spotlight form, or if you'd like to be featured on our Instagram complete the Partner Outreach form for any ongoing support.

CEC STAFF SPOTLIGHT

We would like to introduce you to our TPP (The People's Pitzer) Program Assistant, Alaina Neuburger! Alaina supports programming happening in The People's Pitzer pillar and is ramping up for this election season!

What do you do at the CEC?

I work with Jessica and Amanda to create and support civic engagement at Pitzer!

What is your favorite part of your job?

My favorite part of my job is everyone else at the CEC! I also love developing new programming to encourage voter engagement as TPP is a relatively new program at Pitzer.

How do you practice self-care?

I love yoga, running, and weightlifting!

For more information about the CEC please visit our website at <https://www.pitzer.edu/cec/> or follow us on IG @pitzercec.
