

Manifesto of the Utopian Union of Unemployed People

Artists and Refugees Unite!

We call to you courageous creatures without jobs, visas or status. Mothers and children, lions, eagles and pheasants, winged deer, fish, algae, see wheat and all microorganisms. Witnesses of migrants drowned on their way to Europe, of destroyed houses and the suffering of people from wars. In a word, all living bodies that completed their sorrowful circle now strive as nomadic artists, originated from globalism, who have speeded up the circulation of their cells to an impossible degree. The collective world soul is in all of us. In us dwells the soul of the great free spirits and of the smallest leech. The strands of cosmic consciousness are interwoven in us and we remember everything, everything, everything and we relive every life over again within ourselves.

Whose side are you on Masters of Culture? was asked long ago by Maxim Gorky.

- Artists are on the side of the weak, said Gluklya and Tsaplya.

- Where is equality?, we asked the birds and they flew far away.

- Where is equality?. we asked the feminists. - There is equality, but not sameness, they said.

- Where is equality? we asked the art teacher with degrees from three different European institutions
- There is no equality, we said, and that in itself is equality.

But there is equality between Refugee and Artist! We have found it!

Imagine Schiphol Airport becoming a Theater of the Utopian Union of Unemployed People!

All new arrivals in the European Union and residents together will be actors in their own play, training the mussels to achieve true equality and justice. The citizenship to the World Civic Theater will be judged according to the Demands of the New Theater :

- Empathy
- Compassion
- Fearlessness
- Forgiveness
- Joyousness
- Devotion
- Sensibility
- Creativity

These are the new demands for issuing a visa to the world civil theater: the start of a new society.

A new revolution will come !

to stop the frightful course of alienation and the destruction of the planet through the attainment of general equality.

There is no other way for us!

And here we are out in the street.

We do not agree that the streets where we used to shape our society are given away. The street should be of the people. Let's subvert the fossilized order of things. Down with idiotic expensive shops! Down with the fetisization of shiny trinkets that bring happiness to nobody! Down with gentrification and the shameless despotism of developers!

Architects! Do not submit! Turn down such projects!

Artists! Writers! Musicians! Ecologists! Philosophers!

For the sake of Refugees and all creatures alive: Join the Utopian Unemployment Union!

Join the potato party for resistance, the monster party for overcoming fears, the language of fragility party to express your feelings, the recycling prison party to overhaul the system and the spirit of history party to bring new life to the Revolution!
