

Nash Family Endowed Study Abroad Scholarship Application

This endowed scholarship is for Pitzer College students who are studying abroad and may need additional financial assistance to help cover costs related to study abroad. Common costs related to study abroad include visa fees, passport fees and health report fees. The Office of Study Abroad and International Programs can help identify additional expenses specific to your program if you are uncertain. Please do not include mandatory insurance fees required by the host country or study abroad program provider in your application as these are now covered by the Office of Study Abroad and International Programs.

Eligibility: Applicants must be accepted to a study abroad program and receive Pitzer College financial aid.

Due date: May 1 for summer 2017, fall 2017, or full year 2017-2018 participants. Late applications will be considered if funds are available.

Submit your application to the Office of Study Abroad and International Programs in person, by mail, or by email to studyabroad@pitzer.edu. For more information, please contact the Office of Study Abroad and International Programs or the Office of Financial Aid.
